PRESS RELEASE

December 5, 2012

Downey Police Officers have arrested a male adult Downey resident for the Attempted Murder of his brother.

On Wednesday, December 05, 2012, at 6:54 a.m., Downey Police Officers responded to the 12400 block of Rose Avenue regarding "Gun Shots" being fired. When officers arrived, they found the victim laying to the front of the apartment complex suffering from several gunshot wounds. Officers arrested his brother, who was located inside of his apartment. The suspect was taken into custody without incident and a firearm was recovered. The victim was transported to a local hospital in critical condition, where he is currently receiving treatment. The circumstances surrounding the shooting are being investigated and anyone with information is asked to call the Downey Police Department.
