Warren High School Social Media Threat – Update (4:00 p.m.)

March 12, 2015

The male juvenile suspect arrested earlier today at Warren High School was booked for 422 P.C./Criminal Threats and later released to his parents. The case will be presented to Los Padrinos Juvenile Hall for criminal filing.

After speaking with the juvenile suspect, it was discovered that the threat made over social media was intended as a joke. There are no other suspects involved in this incident.

The Downey Police Department and Downey Unified School District will continue to work together to ensure the safety of our schools and community using all the legal tools at our disposal.
