The performance will consist of a great cast made up of talented musicians and singers such as the Mariachi Femenil Estrella de México, the Banda Colores, as well as choreographies and dances with the Ballet Folclórico Guadalajara, internationally recognized for preserving and spreading the traditions and dances of Mexico.

“I am very excited to welcome this event to our City,” said Mayor Blanca Pacheco. “As Latinos, our culture and traditions are very important to us, but most importantly is to share them with our friends and neighbors. The mariachi music and the performances of one of the best folkloric ballets are sure to be a highlight for all who attend.”
